SPRING ARRIVAL.- The youngster on the cover arrived last week at John Field's farm on Mattapoisett Neck. The mother is a Shetland pony and her daughter stands no higher than a medium sized dog. Frisky and covered with a fur like down, the foal is as cute an animal as you'll ever see. The herring may be waiting for warmer weather but Stardust thinks that Spring is here and looks just fine.

The Board of Appeals shall have the following powers:
1. Appeals. To hear and decide an appeal taken by any person aggrieved by reason of his inability to obtain a permit from any administrative official under the provisions of Chapter 40A, General Laws, or by any officer or board of the town, or by any person aggrieved by any order or decision of the inspector of buildings or other administrative official in violation of any provision of Chapter 40A, General Laws, or of this By-Law.

C. Amendment

This By-Law may be amended from time to time at an annual or special town meeting in accord with the provisions of Section 6 of Chapter 40A.

D. Validity

The invalidity of any section or provision of this By-Law shall not invalidate any other section or provision thereof.

MR. TURE BENGTZ, ARTIST, PRESENTS LECTURE

Through the sponsorship of FORAM, all the students and faculty of Old Rochester Regional High School were treated to a very entertaining and educational lecture, illustrated, on the basics of art, presented by Mr. Ture Bengtz, dean of the drawing and graphic arts department and human anatomy, School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

After a short introduction by Mr. Domingo of the faculty, Mr. Bengtz called to the attention of his audience the importance of art and design in the world we live in today, explaining how everything tangible has to be designed or planned before it can be produced, i.e., dresses, automobiles, tapestries, furniture, etc.

Through his slides and illustrations he was able to show how artists build depth and perspective into their drawings and paintings.

Mr. Bengtz was featured on his own weekly TV program from 1957 to 1960 on Channel 2.

He was educated in the schools of Finland, furthering his art education at Slade School, London, England, and the Fontainbleau, Paris, France.

In 1933 he won the Paige Traveling Scholarship, enabling him to study extensively in the countries of Europe for four summers.

In 1944 he received the Palmer Memorial Prize, presented by the National Academy of Design in New York.

His works are presently being exhibited in art galleries throughout the world.

Arrangements for Mr. Bengtz's appearance were made by Mrs. David Goodenough, assembly program chairman of FORAM.

FORAM MEETING

A meeting of Friends of Old Rochester Arts and Music was held in the Gilbert D. Bristol, Jr. auditorium recently. Mr. Zavan Mazmanian, music supervisor at the high school, showed colored slides and motion pictures of "Oklahoma!", "Pajama Game" and "Carousel", the musicals given at the school during the past three years.

A discussion was held on the possibility of a repeat performance of "Carousel" during the Summer. A final decision will be made by May 30th. Mr. Mazmanian announced a pop concert will be held in the school cafeteria on May 14. The sum of $25. was voted for the Citizens Scholarship Foundation. Officers will be elected at the meeting in June.

Marshall P. Causey-Jones, art supervisor, announced he would like to have a meeting with parents of art students in the near future. Students will be eligible to exhibit art work during the third week in May, designated as Art Week by Governor John Volpe. Old Rochester students would exhibit in New Bedford. All work must be framed and glassed before shown. A cake sale will be held by FORAM to help defray the cost of the framing.

Mr. Causey-Jones requested for next year the sum of $50. to bring more professional art to the school. The sum of $10. has been used for this purpose in the past.

SPRING SALVAGE DRIVE

The 1965 Spring Salvage Drive of the Volunteers of America, National Social Welfare Organization now in its 69th year, opened here on April 22, 1965, announced by Major Hal Hughes, post-executive officer.

The annual Salvage Drive is to assist families deprived of normal sources of support through death, disability or disease. The Volunteers of America also sponsors programs for the aged, handicapped, prison inmates and their dependents, and many others.

As in past years, the Volunteers of America is seeking usable or repairable clothing, furniture, appliances and household goods that have been outgrown or are due to be replaced. Bric-a-Brac is also welcome.

Articles may be left at clearly designated collection points, or in many cases, a phone call will bring a truck for pickups at individual homes. These items are then sorted and renovated for apportion and distribution to the needy of the community.

Major Hal Hughes of the Volunteers of America, noted that the Spring Salvage Drive has long been a major factor in the nation's continuing war on want. It amounts, he says, to a vast redistribution of used clothing and household goods, especially outgrown or outmoded furniture, in such a manner that the less fortunate, regardless of age, race or religion, may be assisted.

"In this way for decades," adds Major Hughes, "the Volunteers of America have been blunting the cutting edge of destitution. Experience has made our post organizations proficient in collection, repair and distribution."

HELP WANTED!

Much is being written in the news media about the present and future growth of Mattapoisett. One of the organizations which is showing the results of this tremendous growth is the Girl Scouts. So far, every girl interested in scouting has been welcomed into a troop. But each year there have been new troops added from the Brownie level up through Cadettes. Next year there will be more new troops including a Senior group, an innovation in this area---IF---someone answers the plea for "Help Wanted". Each troop requires leaders and a troop committee, a total of six adults for each 25-30 girls. With-

Anyone interested in obsering a typical Scout meeting is invited to attend, on any Monday afternoon at 3 P.M., in the classrooms at the Congregational church, the meeting of Mrs. Elsie Wacaser's Junior troop.
